(ii) any of the opposite parties, where there are more than one, at the time of the commencement of the proceedings actually and voluntarily resides, or carries on business, personally works for gain, provided that in such case either the leave of the Court is given, or the opposite parties who do not reside, or carry on business or personally work for gain, as aforesaid, acquiesce in such institution; or

(iii) the cause of action, wholly or in part; arose.

35. Application presented to wrong Court.— (1) Where on receiving an application it appears to the Court that it should be presented to another Court, it shall return it to the applicant after endorsing upon it the dates of the presentation and return, the reason for returning it and the name of the Court to which it should be presented.

(2) Where it appears to the Court at any stage subsequent to the presentation of an application, that the application should have been presented to another Court, the Court shall send the application to the Court empowered to deal with it and shall inform the applicant and the opposite party, accordingly.

(3) The Court to which an application is transferred under sub-rule (2) may continue the proceedings as if the previous proceeding or any part of it had been taken before it, if it is satisfied that the interests of the parties will not thereby be prejudiced.

36. Issue of Summons.— (1) On receiving an application, the Court shall, ordinarily within three days thereof, cause to be sent to the party from whom the applicant claims relief (hereinafter referred to as the “Opposite party”), a summon in Form-IV or Form-V hereto as the case may be, to appear and answer the application on a day, not later than fifteen days from the date of issue of such summons:

Provided that no such summons shall be issued when the opposite party has appeared at the presentation of the application and admitted the applicant’s claim.

(2) A copy of the application shall also be sent along with the summons under sub-rule (1).

37. Service of Summons or notice.— (1) A summon or notice may, on payment of the required fee, shall be sent by the Court by which it is issued, either by registered post or in such other manner as the Court think fit.

(2) Where the Court is satisfied that there is reason to believe that the opposite party is avoiding service or that for any reason the summons or the notice cannot be served in the ordinary way, the Court shall order the summons or the notice to be reserved by affixing a copy thereof in some conspicuous place in the Court house, and also upon some conspicuous part of the house in which the opposite party is known to have last resided or carried on business or personally worked for gain or in such other manner as the Court thinks fit and such service shall be as effectual as if it had been made on the opposite party personally.

(3) Where a summon or notice is served under sub-rule (2), the Court shall fix such time for the appearance of the Opposite Party as the circumstances of the case may require.

38. Written statement.— (1) The opposite party may, and, if so required by the Court, shall at or before the first hearing or within such time as the Court may permit, present a written statement of his defence along with the documents on which he relies and an accurate list thereof in Form-II hereto.

(2) Every such written statement shall be verified in the same manner as a pleading in a Civil Court and shall be accompanied by two copies thereof.

(3) In every written statement submitted under sub-rule (1) the opposite party shall deal specifically with each obligation of fact alleged by the applicant, of which he admits or does not admit or denies the truth. The written statement must also contain all matters which show that the application is not maintainable and all such grounds of defence as if not raised, would be likely to take the applicant by surprise or would raise issues of fact not arising out of the application as for instance, fraud, undue influence or coercion, release, payment performance or facts showing illegality of the transaction.

39. Failure to present written statement called for by the Court.— Where any party from whom a written statement is required fails to present the same within the time specified by the Court, the Court may pronounce judgement against it or make such order in relation to the proceeding as it thinks fit.

40. Framing of issues.— (1) At the first hearing of the application, after the summons is served, the Court shall, after considering the application and the written statement, if any, or after such examination of the parties or any persons or any document as may appear necessary, ascertain upon what material proposition of fact or of law the parties are at variance, and shall thereupon proceed to frame and record the issues upon which the right decision appears to depend.

(2) In recording the issues, the Court shall distinguish between those issues which in its opinion concerns points of fact and those which concern points of law.

(3) The Court may, in like manner, at any time, before passing its final order add to, strike out from or in any way amend the issues on such terms as it may think fit.

41. Order where parties are not at issue.— Where at any hearing of the case it appears that the parties are not at issue on any question of law or of fact the Court may at once pronounce its final order.

42. Appearance of parties and consequences of non-appearance.— (1) On the day fixed in the summons for the opposite party to appear and answer, the parties shall be in attendance at the Court in person or by their respective legal practitioners and the application shall then be heard unless the hearing is adjourned by the Court.

(2) When neither party appears when the application is called on for hearing, the Court may make an order that the application be dismissed.

(3) Where the opposite party appears and the applicant does not appear when the application is called on for hearing the Court shall make an order that the application be dismissed unless the opposite party admits the claim or part thereof in which case the Court shall make an order against the opposite party upon such admission and where part only of the claim has been admitted, it shall dismiss the case so far as it relates, to the remainder.

(4) Where the applicant appears and the opposite party receiving the summons fails to appear when the application is called on for hearing, the Court may proceed ex-parte.

(5) Where the application is wholly or partly dismissed under sub-rule (2) or (3), the applicant may within thirty days of such dismissal apply in Form-VI hereto for an order to set the dismissal aside and the Court shall, if it is satisfied that he was prevented from appearing when the proceeding was called on for hearing due to any sufficient cause make an order setting aside the dismissal upon such terms as to costs or otherwise as it thinks fit and may proceed with the case or appoint a day for proceeding with the same:

Provided that no order under this sub-rule shall be made in respect of an application which is dismissed under sub-rule (3) unless notice of the application has been served in Form-VI on the opposite party.

(6) In any application in which an ex-parte order has been passed against the opposite party, he may within thirty days from the date of such order apply in Form-VII to the Court which passed the order, to set it aside and if the Court is satisfied, that he was prevented from appearing when the proceeding was called on for hearing due to any sufficient cause, it shall after serving notice thereof to the applicant in Form-VII make an order setting aside the order upon such terms as it thinks fit and may proceed with, the hearing of the case or appoint a day for proceeding with the same.

43. Summoning of witnesses.— (1) At any time, after the framing of the issues, the Court may call upon the parties to produce their evidence in support of the issues.

(2) The Court may, on the application of either party, issue a summons in Form-VIII to any witness directing him to attend or to produce any document.

(3) The Court may, before summoning any witness on application under sub-rule (2), require that his reasonable expenses to be incurred in attending the Court, be deposited with it.

44. Grant of time and adjournment of hearing.— (1) The Court may, if sufficient cause is shown, at any stage of the application grant time to the parties or to any of them, and may, from time to time adjourn the hearing of the application.

(2) In every such adjournment the Court shall fix a day not exceeding fifteen days from the date on which such adjournment is made for the further hearing of the application and may make such order as it thinks fit with respect to the costs occasioned by the adjournment:

Provided that when the hearing of the evidence has once begun, the hearing of the application shall be, continued from day to day until all the witnesses in attendance have been examined, unless the Court finds the adjournment of the hearing beyond the following day to be necessary for reasons to be recorded.

45. Right to begin proceeding.— The applicant shall have the right to begin unless the opposite party admits the fact alleged by the applicant and contends that either in point of law or on some additional facts alleged by the opposite party, the applicant is not entitled to the relief which he seeks, in which case the opposite party shall have the right to begin.

46. Statement and production of evidence.— (1) On the day fixed for the hearing of the application or on any other day to which the hearing is adjourned, the party having the right to begin shall state his case and produce his evidence in support of the issues which he is bound to prove.

(2) The other party shall then state his case and produce his evidence (if any) and may then address the Court generally on the whole case.

(3) The party beginning may then reply generally on the whole case.

47. Method of recording evidence.— The evidence of each witness shall be taken down in writing by the Judge or where there is more than one Judge, by the Junior Judge in the language of the Court, not ordinarily in the form of question and answer, but in a narrative, and when completed, shall be read over or translated, where necessary, in the presence of such Judge and the witness, and such Judge shall, if necessary, correct the same and sign it.

48. Recall of a witness.— The Court may at any stage of a proceeding recall any witness who has been examined and may (subject to the law of evidence for, the time being in force) put such questions to him as the Court thinks fit.

49. Inspection by Court.— The Court may at any stage of a proceeding inspect any property or thing concerning which any question may arise.

50. Pronouncement of order.— The Court, after the application has been heard, shall pronounce its final order in open Court, either at once or on some future day, of which due notice shall be given to the parties.

51. Signing of order.— The final order shall be dated and signed in open Court, at the time of pronouncing it and, when once signed, shall not afterwards be altered or added to, save in the case of clerical or arithmetical mistake arising from any accidental slip or omission.

52. Statement of decision on each issue.— In cases in which issues have been framed, the Court shall state its finding or decision, with the reason therefore, upon each separate issue, unless the finding upon anyone or more of the issues is insufficient for the decision of the case.

53. Compromise of suit.— Where it is proved to the satisfaction of the Court that a case has been adjusted wholly or in part by any lawful agreement or compromise, or where the opposite party satisfies the applicant in respect of the whole or any part of the subject matter of the case, the Court shall order such agreement, compromise or satisfaction to be recorded, and shall pass a final order, in accordance therewith so far as it relates to the case.

54. Finality of Order.— The order of a Court shall be final and binding upon the parties.

55. Costs.— (1) The costs of and incidental to the application shall be in the discretion of the Court, and the Court shall have full power to determine by whom or out of which property and to what extent such Costs are to be paid, and to give all necessary directions for the purpose aforesaid. The fact that the Court has no jurisdiction to try the case shall be no bar to the exercise of such powers.

(2) Where the Court directs that any cost shall not follow the event, the Court shall state its reasons in writing.

56. Contents of the decree.— (1) A decree in Form-IX hereto shall be prepared in conformity with the order made by the Court and shall contain the number of the application, the names and descriptions of the parties, and particulars of the claim, and shall specify clearly the relief granted or other determination of the proceeding.

(2) The decree shall also state the amount of costs incurred in the proceeding and by whom and in what proportions such costs are to be paid.

(3) The Court may direct that the costs payable to one party by the other shall be set off against any sum which is admitted or found to be due from, the former to the latter.

57. Certified copies of order, decree, etc., to be furnished.— (1) Certified copies of the final order, decree or any other order or matter on record shall be furnished to the parties on application to the Court and at their expense.

(2) If any party requires copies of any order, decree, or any other matter on record made by or furnished to the Court, as the case may be, to be supplied to him within forty-eight hours of the submission of an application thereof to the Court, he shall pay fee of two rupees for each such copy.

(3) If any party applies for copies of any order, decree or any other matter on record made by or furnished to the Court, as the case may be, after the expiry of twelve months from the date of such making or furnishing, as the case may be, he shall pay an additional searching fee of two rupees.

58. Execution.— (1) Any person in whose favour an order had been passed shall, within one year from the date of the order, apply in Form-X hereto to the Court which made the order for its execution.

(2) On such application being made, the Court shall send the same together with the necessary record to a Civil Court, of competent jurisdiction, for the execution and such Civil Court shall have the same power in executing such order as if it has been passed by it.

59. Communication of fact of execution otherwise.— The Civil Court to which a decree is sent for execution shall certify to the Court which passed it the fact of such execution or where that Court fails to execute the same and the circumstances attending such failure.

60. Fees.— (1) The fee payable on an application in respect of any matter shall be two rupees.

(2) Subject to the provisions hereafter mentioned in this rule, the fee payable in respect of any other application except a written statement called for by the Court under these rules shall be two rupee:

Provided that the fee for an application for obtaining a copy or translation of any document or record or statement, order or decree before the Court, shall be one rupee.

(3) The fee for filing certified copies of any document in a Court shall be one rupee.

(4) All fees shall be collected by means of court fee stamps used in ordinary Courts and no document which ought to bear stamp shall be of any validity unless and until it is properly stamped:

Provided that where any such document is through mistake or inadvertence, received, filed or used in a Court without being properly stamped, the Court may, if it thinks fit, order that such document be stamped as it may direct and on such document being stamped accordingly the same and every proceeding relative thereto shall be as valid as if it had been properly stamped in the first instance.

(5) No document requiring a stamp under this rule shall be acted upon in any proceeding in a Court until the stamp has been cancelled.

61. Payment of costs of services of summons, etc.— (1) The cost of service of summons or notices or the expenses of the witnesses in any case or the fee payable in respect of any matter not referred to in the preceding rule shall be such amount as may be specified in each case by the Court, and such amount or any other sum of money payable under these rules shall be paid in such manner and within such time as it may specify therefor.

(2) Any amount which is left over after meeting the expenses, if any, for which it was intended, shall be returned by the Court to the party by whom or on whose behalf the amount was originally paid to the Court.

(3) The Court shall maintain proper accounts of the amount received and disbursed under sub-rule (1).

62. Fees and costs of poor persons.— The Court may, whenever it thinks fit, receive and register proceedings instituted under the Act and applications made under these rules, by persons who are paupers, and may issue summons or notices on behalf of such persons, without payment or on a part payment of the fees and costs.

63. Provisions in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908) etc., to apply.— In respect of matters relating to powers, procedure or admission of evidence for which no specific provision is made in these rules the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure 1908 (V of 1908), including the Rules made there under and the Bharatiya Sakshya Adhiniyam, 2023 (Central Act, 47 of 2023) shall, so far as may be, apply to proceedings under the Act.

64. Manner and time within which second appeal may be filed to the Court.— The Insured person or the corporation may appeal to the Court by presenting an application within ninety days of the date of communication of the decision of the Medical Board or of the Medical Appeal Tribunal to the Insured Person or the Corporation, as the case may be:

Provided that the Court may entertain an application after the period of ninety days, if it is satisfied that the appellant had sufficient reasons for not presenting the application within the said period.

CHAPTER IV

Gratuity

65. Gratuity invested for the benefit of minor.— In the case of nominee, or an heir, who is minor, the competent authority shall invest the gratuity amount deposited with him for the benefit of such minor in term deposit with the State Bank of India or any other Nationalised Bank.

Explanation.— “Nationalised Bank” means a corresponding new bank specified in the First Schedule to the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1970 (Central Act 5 of 1970) or a corresponding new bank specified in the First Schedule of the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1980 (Central Act 40 of 1980).

66. Nomination, fresh nomination and modification.— (1) A nomination shall be in Form-XI hereto and submitted in duplicate by the employee either by personal service, after taking proper receipt or by registered post acknowledgement due or electronically to the employer,—

(i) in the case of an employee who is already in employment for a year or more on the date of commencement of these rules but not submitted the nomination, ordinarily, within ninety days from such date; and

(ii) in the case of an employee who completes one year of service after the date of commencement of these rules, ordinarily within thirty days of the completion of one year of service:

Provided that nomination in Form-XI shall be accepted by the employer after the specified period, if filed and no nomination so accepted shall be invalid merely because it was filed after the specified period.

(2) Within thirty days of the receipt of nomination in Form-XI under sub-rule (1), the employer shall get the service particulars of the employee, as mentioned in the form of nomination, verified with reference to the records of the establishment and return to the employee, after obtaining a receipt thereof, the duplicate copy of the nomination in Form-XI duly attested either by the employer or an officer authorised in this behalf by him, as a token of recording of the nomination by the employer and the other copy of the nomination shall be retained by him.

(3) An employee who has no family at the time of making a nomination shall, within ninety days of acquiring a family submit in the manner specified in sub-rule (1), a fresh nomination, as required under sub-section (4) of Section 55, in duplicate in Form-XI to the employer and thereafter the provisions of sub-rule (2) shall apply mutatis mutandis as if it was made under sub-rule (1).

(4) A notice of modification of a nomination, including cases where a nominee predeceases an employee, shall be submitted in duplicate in Form-XI to the employer in the manner specified in sub-rule (1), and thereafter the provisions of sub-rule (2) shall apply mutatis mutandis as if it was made under sub-rule (1).

(5) A nomination or a fresh nomination or a notice of modification of nomination shall be, signed by the employee or, if illiterate, shall bear his thumb impression in the presence of two competent witnesses, who shall also sign a declaration to that effect in the nomination, fresh nomination or notice of modification of nomination, as the case may be and shall be submitted by the employee electronically or by registered post acknowledgement due to the employer.

(6) A nomination, fresh nomination or notice of modification of nomination shall take effect from the date of receipt thereof by the employer.

67. Application for payment of gratuity and appeal etc.,— (1) An employee who is eligible for payment of gratuity under the Code, or any person authorized, in writing, to act on his behalf, shall apply, ordinarily within a period of thirty days from the date the gratuity became payable, in Form-XII hereto to the employer:

Provided that where the date of superannuation or retirement of an employee is known, the employee may apply to the employer before thirty days of the date of superannuation or retirement:

Provided further that an employee on fixed term employment shall be eligible for gratuity, if he renders service under the contract for a period of at least one year and for subsequent period in excess of six months and more, but less than one year, shall be rounded off to one additional year.

(2) A nominee of an employee who is eligible for payment of gratuity under the second proviso to sub-section (1) of Section 53 shall apply, ordinarily within thirty days from the date of gratuity became payable to him, in Form-XII hereto to the employer:

Provided that an application in plain paper with relevant particulars shall also be accepted and the employer may obtain such other particulars as may be deemed necessary by him.

(3) A legal heir of an employee who is eligible for payment of gratuity under the second proviso to sub-section (1) of Section 53, shall apply, ordinarily within one year from the date of gratuity became payable to him, in Form-XII to the employer.

(4) Where gratuity becomes payable under the Code before the commencement of these rules, the periods of limitation specified in sub-rule (1), (2) and (3) shall be deemed to be operative from the date of such commencement.

(5) An application for payment of gratuity filed after the expiry of the periods specified in this rule shall also be entertained by the employer, if the applicant adduces sufficient cause for the delay in preferring his claim, and no claim for gratuity under the Code shall be invalid merely because the claimant failed to present his application within the specified period. Any dispute in this regard shall be referred to the competent authority for his decision.

(6) An application for payment of gratuity shall be submitted to the employer either electronically, or by personal service or by registered post acknowledgement due.

68. Notice for payment of gratuity.— (1) Within fifteen days of the receipt of an application for payment of gratuity, the employer shall—

(i) if the claim is found admissible on verification, issue a notice in Form-XIII to the applicant employee, nominee or legal heir, as the case may be, specifying the amount of gratuity payable and fixing a date, not being later than the thirtieth day after the date of receipt of the application, for payment thereof; or

(ii) if the claim for gratuity is not found admissible, issue a notice in Form-XIII to the applicant employee, nominee or legal heir, as the case may be, specifying the reasons why the claim for gratuity is not considered admissible, and the copy of the notice shall be endorsed to the competent authority.

Explanation.— For the purpose of determination of gratuity under this rules, it is clarified that—

(i) the exclusion from wages, as specified under sub-clauses (a) and (b) of Clause (88) of Section 2, shall also include any payment payable on an annual basis, that is linked to performance or productivity of an employee or of the establishment in which he is employed and is not part of the remuneration payable under the terms of employment; and

(ii) the following shall not form part of the wage—

- (a) reimbursement of medical expenses;
- (b) stock option benefits or cash equivalent of stock award;
- (c) crèche allowance;
- (d) telephone and internet reimbursement; and
- (e) value of meal vouchers.

(2) In case payment of gratuity is due to be made in the employer's office, the date fixed for the purpose in the notice in Form-XIII under sub-clause (i) of sub-rule (1) shall be re-fixed by the employer, if a written application in this behalf is made by the payee explaining why it is not possible for him to be present in person on the date specified.

(3) If the claimant for gratuity is a nominee or a legal heir, the employer may ask for such witness(es) or evidence(s) as may be deemed relevant for establishing his identity or maintainability of his claim, as the case may be, and in that case, the time limit specified for issuance of notices under sub-rule (1) shall be operative with effect from the date such witness(es) or evidence(s), as the case may be, called for by the employer is furnished to the employer.

(4) A notice in Form-XIII shall be served on the applicant either by personal service after taking receipt or by registered post with acknowledgement due or electronically.

(5) As soon as the gratuity becomes payable, the employer shall, whether an application has been made or not, determine the amount of gratuity and give a notice under sub-section (2) of Section 56 in Form-XIII.

69. Mode of payment of gratuity.— The gratuity payable under the Code shall be paid through Demand Draft or by crediting in the bank account of the eligible employee, nominee or legal heir, as the case may be:

Provided that intimation about the details of payment shall also be given by the employer to the competent authority of the area.

70. Application to competent authority for direction.— (1) If an employer—

- (i) refuses to accept a nomination or to entertain an application sought to be filed, or
- (ii) issues a notice either specifying an amount of gratuity which is considered by the applicant less than what is payable or rejecting eligibility to payment of gratuity, or
- (iii) having received an application fails to issue notice as required within the time.

the claimant employee, nominee or legal heir, as the case may be, may, within one hundred eighty days of the occurrence of the cause for the application, apply in Form-XIV hereto to the Competent Authority for issuing a direction under Clause (c) of sub-section (5) of Section 56 with a copy to the opposite party.

Provided that the competent authority may accept any application under this sub-rule, on sufficient cause being shown by the applicant, after the expiry of the specified period.

(2) Application under sub-rule (1) and other documents relevant to such an application shall be presented in person to the competent authority or shall be sent by registered post acknowledgement due or electronically.

71. Procedure for dealing with application for direction.— (1) On receipt of an application under rule 54 the Competent Authority shall, by issuing a notice in Form-XV electronically or registered post acknowledgement due or in person call upon the applicant as well as the employer to appear before him on a specified date, time and place, either by himself or through his authorized representative together with all relevant documents and witnesses, if any.

(2) Any person desiring to act on behalf of an employer or employee, nominee or legal heir, as the case may be, shall present to the competent authority a letter of authority from the employer or the person concerned, as the case may be, on whose behalf he seeks to act together with a written statement explaining his interest in the matter and praying for permission so to act. The competent authority shall record thereon an order either according his approval or specifying, in the case of refusal to grant the permission prayed for, the reasons for the refusal.

(3) A party appearing by an authorized representative shall be bound by the acts of the representative.

(4) After completion of hearing on the date fixed under sub-rule (1), or after such further evidence, examination of documents, witnesses, hearing and inquiry, as may be deemed necessary, the competent authority shall record his finding as to whether any amount is payable to the applicant under the Code and a copy of the finding shall be given to each of the parties.

(5) If the employer concerned fails to appear on the specified date of hearing after due service of notice without sufficient cause, the competent authority may proceed to hear and determine the application ex parte; and if the applicant fails to appear on the specified date of hearing without sufficient cause, the competent authority may dismiss the application:

Provided that an order may, on good cause being shown within thirty days of the said order, be reviewed and the application re-heard after giving not less than fourteen days notice to the opposite party of the date fixed for rehearing of the application:

Provided further that the time limit for disposal of application shall not exceed ninety days from the date of filing of the application before the Competent authority. In case of non-appearance by either of the parties, a maximum of three opportunities may be given before disposal of the application.

(6) The sittings of the competent authority shall be held at such times and at such places as he may fix and he shall inform the parties of the same in such manner as he thinks fit.

(7) The competent authority may authorize a clerk of his office to administer oaths for the purpose of giving evidence or producing documents.

(8) The competent authority may, at any stage of the proceedings before him, either upon or without an application by any of the parties involved in the proceedings before him, and on such terms as may appear to the competent authority just, issue summons to any person in Form-XV either to give evidence or to produce documents or for both purposes on a specified date, time and place.

(9) Any notice, summons, process or order issued by the competent authority may be served either personally or by registered post acknowledgement due or electronically or in any other manner as specified under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908).

(10) where there are numerous persons as parties to any proceeding before the competent authority and such persons are members of any trade union or association or are represented by an authorized person, the service of notice on the Secretary, or where there is no Secretary, on the principal officer of the trade union or association, or on the authorized person shall be deemed to be service on such persons.

(11) (a) The competent authority shall record the particulars of each case under Section 56 and at the time of passing orders shall sign and date the particulars so recorded.

(b) The competent authority shall, while passing orders in each case, also record the findings on the merits of the case and file it together with the memoranda of evidence with the order sheet.

(c) Any record, other than a record of any order or direction, which is required to be signed by the competent authority, may be signed on behalf of and under the direction of the competent authority by any subordinate officer appointed in writing for this purpose by the competent authority.

(12) If a finding is recorded that the applicant is entitled to payment of gratuity under the Code, the competent authority shall issue a notice to the employer concerned in Form-XVI electronically or by registered post acknowledgment due or in person specifying the amount payable and directing payment thereof to the applicant under intimation to the competent authority within a period of thirty days from the date of the receipt of the notice by the employer and a copy of the notice shall be endorsed to the applicant employee, nominee or legal heir, as the case may be.

(13) (a) The Memorandum of appeal under sub-section (8) of Section 56 of the Code shall be submitted to the appellate authority with a copy thereof to the opposite party and the competent authority either through delivery in person or under registered post acknowledgment due or electronically.

(b) The Memorandum of appeal shall contain the facts of the case, the decision of the competent authority, the grounds of appeal and the relief sought.

(c) There shall be appended to the Memorandum of appeal a certified copy of the finding of the competent authority and direction for payment of gratuity.

(d) On receipt of the copy of Memorandum of appeal, the competent authority shall forward records of the case to the appellate authority.

(e) Within fourteen days of the receipt of the copy of the Memorandum of appeal, the opposite party shall submit his comments on each paragraph of the memorandum with additional pleas, if any, to the appellate authority with a copy to the appellant.

(f) The appellate authority shall record its decision after giving the parties to the appeal a reasonable opportunity of being heard. A copy of the decision shall be given to the parties to the appeal by electronically or registered post or in person and a copy thereof shall be sent to the competent authority returning his records of the case.

(g) The competent authority shall, on receipt of the decision of the appellate authority, make necessary entry in the records of the case maintained by him.

(h) On receipt of the decision of the appellate authority, the competent authority shall, if required under that decision, modify his direction for payment of gratuity and issue a notice to the employer concerned in Form XVI specifying the modified amount payable and directing payment thereof to the applicant, under intimation to the competent authority within fifteen days of the receipt of the notice by the employer and a copy of the notice be endorsed to the appellant/employee, nominee or legal heir, as the case may be, and to the appellate authority.

(14) Where an employer fails to pay the gratuity due under the Code in accordance with the notice by the competent authority under sub-rule (11) or sub-rule (12), as the case may be, the employee concerned, his nominee or legal heir, as the case may be, to whom the gratuity is payable may apply to the competent authority in duplicate in Form-XVII hereto for recovery thereof under Section 129 of the Code.

(15) The person to be appointed as a competent authority for the purposes of chapter V of the Code shall be an officer not below the rank of Deputy Labour Commissioner of the Labour Department, having degree in law or diploma in labour laws of a university established by law in any part of India and at least seven years experience as conciliation officer in the Department.

(iv) whether the provisions of sub-section (1) of Section 59, sub-sections (5) and (6) of Section 62, Sections 64, 65, 66, 67, 69 and 71 have been complied with and whether amounts due have been paid within the time as per the relevant provisions of the Code and rules made by the Central Government;

(v) whether there have been any cases of deprivation of maternity benefit or medical bonus as referred to in sub-section (2) of Section 68; and

(vi) how far the irregularities pointed out at previous inspections have been remedied and how far orders previously issued have been complied with.

(2) Where an Inspector-cum-Facilitator observes irregularities against the Code or these rules, he shall issue an order in writing electronically or otherwise to the employer asking the employer to rectify the irregularities within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of the order and report compliance to the Inspector-cum-Facilitator.

(3) The employer shall supply to every woman employed by him at her request free of cost copies of Forms-XVIII, XIX, XX, XXI-A and XXI-B.

(4) Nothing shall affect the right of a woman entitled to receive maternity benefit or any other amount due under the Code if she fails to submit a notice, appeal or complaint under the said rules, as the case may be, in a form specified for such purpose:

Provided that where a notice, appeal or complaint under the said rules has been submitted by a woman entitled to receive maternity benefit or any other amount due under the Code in a form other than the form specified for such purpose, the authority concerned may, within fifteen days of the receipt of such notice, appeal or complaint require the woman to submit the notice, appeal or complaint, as the case may be, in the form specified for such purpose.

(5) The abstract of the provisions of Chapter VI of the Code and the Central rules made thereunder required to be exhibited under Section 71 shall be in Form-XXII, and shall be exhibited in such manner as the competent authority may require.

CHAPTER VI

Employees Compensation

77. Amount to be deposited towards the expenditure of the funeral of the employee with the competent authority by the employer.— If the injury of employee results in death, the employer shall in addition to compensation to be given under the Code shall deposit with the competent authority a sum of fifteen thousand rupees or such amount as may be notified by the Government by notification in the Official Gazette, for payment of the same to the eldest surviving dependents of the employee towards the expenditure of the funeral of such employee or where the employee does not have any dependent or was not living with his dependent at the time of his death to the person who actually incurred such expenditure.

78. Conditions when application for review is made without certificate of a medical practitioner.— Application for review of half-monthly payment under Section 79, may be made without being accompanied by a medical certificate.—

(a) by the employer, on the ground that since the right to compensation was determined, the employee's wages have increased;

(b) by the employee, on the ground that since the right to compensation was determined, his wages have diminished;

(c) by the employee, on the ground that the employer, having commenced to pay compensation, has ceased to pay the same, notwithstanding the fact that there has been no change in the employee's condition such as to warrant such cessation;

(d) either by the employer or by the employee, on the ground that the determination of the rate of compensation for the time being in force was obtained by fraud or undue influence or other improper means;

(e) either by the employer or by the employee on the ground that in the determination of compensation, there is a mistake or error apparent on the face of the record.

79. Procedure on application for review.— If, on examining an application for review by an employer in which the reduction or discontinuance of half-monthly payments is sought it appears to the Competent Authority that there is reasonable ground for believing that the employer has a right to such reduction or discontinuance, he may at any time issue an order withholding the half-monthly payments in whole or in part pending his decision on the application.

80. Procedure on application for communication.— (1) Where application is made to the Competent Authority under section 80 for redemption of a right to receive half-monthly payments by the payment of a lump sum, the Competent Authority shall from an estimate of the probable duration of the disablement, and shall award a sum equivalent to the total of the half-monthly payments which would be payable for the period during which he estimates that the disablement will continue, less one-half per cent of that total for each month comprised in that period:

Provided that fraction of a rupee included in the sum so computed shall be disregarded.

(2) When, in any case to which sub-rule (1) applies, the Competent Authority is unable to form an approximate estimate of the probable duration of the disablement, he may from time to time postpone a decision on the application for a period not exceeding two months at any one time.

81. Class of employers and the form of notice-book.— Every employer to which the Code applies, shall maintain a notice book in accordance with sub-section (4) of Section 82 in Form-XXIII, which shall be readily accessible at all reasonable times to any injured employee employed on the premises, and to any person acting bonafide on his behalf.

82. The frequent for medical examination under the proviso to sub-section (1) of Section 84.— A employee who is required by sub-section (1) of Section 84 to submit himself for medical examination shall be bound to do so in accordance with the rules contained in this part.

(i) Examination when employee and medical practitioner both on premises.— When such employee is present at the employer's premises, and the employer offers to have him examined free of charge by a qualified medical practitioner who is so present, the employee shall submit himself for examination forthwith.

(ii) Examination in other cases.— The employer may,—

(a) Send the medical practitioner to the place where the employee is residing for the time being, in which case, the employee shall submit himself for medical examination on being requested to do so by the medical practitioner; or

(b) Send to the employee an offer in writing to have him examined free of charge by a qualified medical practitioner, in which case the employee shall submit himself for medical examination at the employer's premises or at such other place in the vicinity as is specified in such offer and at such time as is so specified:

Provided that—

(ii) in case where the employees' condition renders it impossible or inadvisable that he should leave the place where he is residing for the time being, he shall not be required to submit himself for medical examination save at such place.

(iii) Restriction on number of examinations.— A employee who is in receipt of a half-monthly payment shall not be required to submit himself for medical examination elsewhere than at the place where he is residing for the time being more than twice in the first month following the accident or more than once in any subsequent month.

(vi) Examination after suspension of right to compensation.— If a employee whose right to compensation has been suspended under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) of Section 84 subsequently offers himself for medical examination, his examination shall take place on the employer's premises or at such other place in the vicinity as may be fixed by the employer, and at a time to be fixed by the employer not being save with the express consent of the employee, more than 72 hours after the workman has so offered himself.

(v) Examination of women.— (a) No woman shall without her consent be medically examined by a male practitioner, save in the presence of another woman.

(b) No woman shall be required to be medically examined by a male practitioner if she deposits a sum sufficient to cover the expenses of examination by a female practitioner.

83. Form of statement to be submitted by the employer.— The statement for fatal accident required under sub-section (1) of Section 88, shall be in Form-XXIV hereto.

84. Record of Memorandum of Agreement.— Memorandum of agreement sent to the competent authority under sub-section (1) of Section 89 shall unless the competent authority otherwise directs, be in duplicate, and shall be in as close conformity as the circumstances of the case admit with, in Form-XXV, or Form-XXVI, or Form-XXVII, as the case may be.

(2) On receiving a memorandum of agreement, the competent authority shall, for taking decision to record memorandum or refusing to record, shall issue notice to parties to agreement in Form-XXVIII, fixing date and place of hearing and in default of objections, he proposes to record the memorandum on the date so fixed. The notice may be sent personally or through registered post or speed post or electronically:

Provided that the notice may be communicated orally to any parties who are present at the time when notice in writing would otherwise issue.

(3) On the date so fixed, the competent authority, after hearing the parties to agreement shall take decision to record or refuse to record the memorandum:

Provided that the issue of a notice under sub-rule (2) shall not be deemed to prevent the competent authority from refusing to record the memorandum on the date so fixed even if no objection has been made by any party concerned.

(4) If on such date the competent authority decides that the memorandum ought not to be recorded, he shall inform the parties present of his decision and of the reasons thereof and if any party desiring the memorandum to be recorded is not present, he shall send information to that party in Form-XXVII hereto.

(5) If, on receiving a memorandum of agreement, the Competent Authority considers that there are grounds for refusing to record the same he shall fix a date for hearing the party or parties desiring the memorandum to be recorded, and shall inform such party or parties and, if he thinks fit, any other party concerned of the date so fixed, and of the ground on which he considers that the memorandum should not be recorded.

(6) If the parties to be informed are not present a written notice shall be sent to them in Form-XXVIII or Form-XXIX hereto, as the case may be, and the date fixed in such notice shall be not less than seven days after the date of the issue of the same.

(7) If, on the date so fixed, the party or parties desiring the memorandum to be recorded show adequate cause for proceeding to record the same, the Competent Authority may, if information has already been given to all the parties concerned, record the agreement. If information has not been given to all such parties, he shall proceed in accordance with the applicable provisions.

(8) If, on the date so fixed, the Competent Authority refuses to record the memorandum, he shall send notice in Form-XXX hereto to any party who did not receive information.

(9) If, in any case, the Competent Authority refuses to record a memorandum of agreement, he shall briefly record his reason for such refusal.

(10) If the Competent Authority refuses to record a memorandum of agreement, he shall not pass any order directing the payment of any sum or amount over and above the sum specified in the agreement, unless opportunity has been given to the party liable to pay such sum to show cause why it should not be paid.

(11) Where in case of the agreement for the redemption of half-monthly payments by the payments of a lump sum, the Competent Authority considers the memorandum of agreement should not be recorded by reason of the inadequacy of the amount of such sum as filed in the agreement, he shall record his estimate of the probable duration of the disablement of the employee.

(12) In recording a memorandum of agreement, the competent authority shall cause the same to be entered in a register in Form-XXXI hereto and shall cause an endorsement to be entered under his signature on a copy of a memorandum to be retained by him in the following terms, namely:-

“The memorandum of agreement bearing Serial No. _____ of _____ 20 in the register has been recorded this _____ day _____ of.

85. Experience and qualification for appointment as a competent authority under sub-section (1) of Section 91.— The Government may, by notification, appoint any person who is or has been—

(a) Member of State Judicial service for a period of not less than five years; or

(b) Advocate with atleast five years of practice; or

(c) Gazetted officer with service not less than five years and having law degree and experience either in personnel management or human resource development or Industrial relations or legal affairs Department.

86. Manner in which matters may be dealt with by or before a competent authority.— (1) Application.— (1) Any application under Section 93 may be filed before to the competent authority electronically or by registered post or may be presented to him or to any of his subordinates authorized by him in this behalf, and, if so sent or presented, shall, unless the Competent Authority otherwise directs, be made in duplicate in appropriate Form, if any, and shall be signed by the applicant.

(2) Every such application shall be accompanied by a certificate, which shall be signed by the applicant, to the effect that the statement of facts contained in the application is to the best of his knowledge and belief and is accurate.

(3) When the application for relief is based upon a document, the document shall be accompanied with the application.

(4) Any other document which any party desires to file in evidence shall be produced at or before the first hearing.

(5) Any document which is not produced shall not, without the sanction of the Competent Authority, be admissible in evidence on behalf of the party who should have produced it.

(6) Nothing in this sub-rules applies to any document which is produced for the purpose of cross-examining a witness or is handed to a witness to refresh his memory.

(7) If it appears to the Competent Authority on receiving application that it should be presented to another Competent Authority he shall return it to the applicant after endorsing upon it the date of the presentation and return, the reasons for returning it and designation of the Competent authority to whom it should be presented.

(8) If it appears to the Competent Authority at any subsequent stage that an application should have been presented to another Competent Authority, he shall send the application to the Competent Authority empowered to deal with it and shall inform the applicant (and the opposite party, if he has received a copy of the application), accordingly.

(9) The Competent Authority to whom an application is transferred under sub-rule (8) may continue the proceedings as if the previous proceedings or any part of them has been taken before him, if he is satisfied that the interests of the parties will not thereby be prejudice.

(10) Upon receiving application under Section 93, the Competent Authority may examine the applicant on oath, or may send the application to any officer authorised by the Government in this behalf and direct such officer to examine the applicant and his witness and forward the record thereof to the Competent Authority.

The substance of any examination made shall be recorded in the manner provided for the recording of evidence in Section 97.

(11) The Competent Authority may, after considering application and the result of any examination of the applicant, summarily dismiss the application, if, for reasons to be recorded, he is of opinion that there are no sufficient grounds for proceeding thereon. The dismissal of the application shall not be itself preclude the applicant from presenting a fresh application for the settlement of the same matter.

(12) If the application is not dismissed under sub-rule (ii), the Competent Authority may for reasons to be recorded, call upon the applicant to produce evidence in support of the application before calling upon any other party, and, if upon considering such evidence the Competent Authority is of opinion that there is no case for the relief claimed, he may dismiss the application with a brief statement of his reasons for so doing.

(13) the Competent Authority does not dismiss the application under sub-rule (12), he shall send to the party from whom the applicant claims relief (hereinafter referred to as the opposite party) a copy of the application, together with a notice of the date on which he will dispose of the application, and may call upon the parties to produce upon that date any evidence which they may wish to tender. The opposite party may, and if so required by the Competent Authority, at or before the first hearing or within such time as the Competent Authority may permit, file a written statement dealing with the claim, raised in the application, and any such written statement shall form part of the record. If the opposite party contests the claim, the Competent Authority may, and, if no written statement has been filed, shall proceed to examine him upon the claim and shall reduce the result of examination to writing.

(14) After considering any written statement and the result of any examination of the parties, the Competent Authority shall ascertain upon what material propositions of fact or of law the parties are at variance and shall thereupon proceed to frame and record the issues upon which the right decision of the case appears to him to depend. In recording the issues, the Competent Authority shall distinguish between those issues which in his opinion concern point of facts and those which concern point of law.

(15) When issues both of law and of fact arise in the same case, and the Competent Authority is of opinion that the case may be disposed of on the issues of law only, he may try those issues first, and for that purpose may, if he thinks fit, postpone the settlement of the issue of fact until the issues of law have been determined.

(16) The Competent Authority shall maintain under his hand a brief diary of the proceedings on an application.

(17) If the Competent Authority finds it impossible to dispose of an application at one hearing he shall record the reasons which necessitate a postponement.

(18) The Competent Authority, in passing orders, shall record concisely a judgment, his finding on each of the issues framed and his reasons for such finding. The Competent Authority, at the time of signing and dating his judgment, shall pronounce, his decision, and thereafter no addition or alteration shall be made to the judgment other than the correction of a clerical or arithmetical mistake arising from any accidental slip or omission.

(19) If an application is presented by any party to the proceedings for the citation of witnesses, the Competent Authority shall, on payment of the specified expenses, and fees, issue summons for the appearance of such witnesses, unless he considers that their appearance is not necessary for the just decision of the case.

(20) A Competent Authority before whom any proceeding relating to injury by accident is pending may, at any time, enter the place where the workman was injured, or where the workman ordinarily performed his work, for the purpose of making a local inspection or of examining any person likely to be able to give information relevant to the proceedings:

Provided that the Competent Authority shall not enter any premises of any industrial establishment except during the ordinary working hours of that establishment, save with the permission of the employer or of some person directly responsible to him for the management of the establishment.

(21) If the Competent Authority proposes to conduct a local inspection with a view to examining on the spot the circumstances in which an accident took place, he shall give the parties or their representatives notice of his intention of conduct such inspection, unless in his opinion the urgency of the case renders the giving of such notice impracticable. Such notice may be given orally or in writing and, in the case of an employer, may be given to any person upon whom notice of a claim can be served under sub-section (2) of Section 88, or the representative of any such person.

Any party, or the representative of any party, may accompany the Competent Authority at a local inspection.

The Competent Authority, after making a local inspection, shall note briefly in a memorandum any facts observed, and shall show the memorandum to any party who desires to see the same, and, on payment of the fee of Rs.500/-, shall supply any party with a copy thereof.

The memorandum shall form part of the record.

(22) (a) The Competent Authority during a local inspection or at any other time, save at a formal hearing of a case pending before him, may examine summarily any person likely to be able to give information relative to such case, whether such person has been or is to be called as a witness in the case or not, and whether any or all the parties are present or not.

(b) No oath shall be administered to a person to be examined under Clause (a).

(c) Statements made by persons examined under Clause (a), if reduced to writing, shall not be signed by the person making the statement, nor shall they, except as hereinafter provided, be incorporated in the record or utilized by the Competent Authority for the purpose of arriving at a decision in the case.

(d) If a witness who has been examined under Clause (a) makes in evidence any material statement contradicting any statement made by him in such examination and reduced to writing, the Competent Authority may call his attention to such statement, and shall in that case direct that the parties be furnished with the relevant part of such statement for the purpose of cross examining the witness.

(e) Any statements or part of a statement which is furnished to the parties under Clause (d) shall be incorporated in the record.

(f) Where a case is settled by agreement between the parties, the Competent Authority may incorporate in the record any statement made under Clause (a) and may utilize such statement for the purpose of justifying his acceptance of or refusal to accept the agreement reached.

(23) (a) If a party states in writing his willingness to abide by the decision of the Competent Authority, the Competent Authority shall inquire whether the other party is willing to abide by his decision.

(b) If the other party agrees to abide by the Competent Authorities' decision, the fact of his agreement shall be recorded in writing and signed by him.

(c) If the other party does not agree to abide by the Competent Authorities decision the first party shall not remain under an obligation so to abide.

(24) (a) Where the opposite party claims that if compensation is recovered against him he will be entitled under sub-section (2) of Section 85 to be indemnified by a person not being a party to the case, he shall, when first called upon answer the application, present a notice of such claim to the Competent Authority accompanied by the fee of Rs.500/-, and the Competent Authority shall thereupon issue notice to such person in Form-XX hereto.

(b) If any person served with a notice under Clause (a) desires to contest the applicant's claim for compensation or the opposite party's claim to be indemnified, he shall appear before the Competent Authority on the date fixed for the hearing of the case or on any date to which the case may be adjourned and, if he so appears, shall have all the rights of a party to the proceedings, in default of so appearing he shall be deemed to admit the validity of any award made against the opposite party and to admit his own liability to indemnify the opposite party for any compensation recovered from him:

Provided that, if any person so served appear subsequently and satisfies the Competent Authority that he was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing, the Competent Authority shall offer giving notice to the aforesaid opposite party, hear such person and may set aside or vary any award made against such person under this rule and upon such terms as may be just.

(c) If any person served with a notice under Clause (a) whether or not he desires to contest the applicant's claim for compensation or the opposite party's claim to be indemnified by a person standing to him in the relation of a contractor from whom the workman could have recovered compensation, he shall on or before the date fixed in the notice under Clause (a) present a notice of such claim to the Competent Authority accompanied by the fee or Rupees five hundred only and the Competent Authority shall thereupon issue notice to such person in Form-XX hereto.

(d) If any person served with a notice under Clause (c) desires to contest the applicant's claim for compensation, or the claim under Clause (c) to be indemnified, he shall appear before the Competent Authority on the date fixed in the notice in Form-XXXIV or on any date to which the case may be adjourned and, if he so appears, shall have all the rights of a party to the proceedings in default of so appearing he shall be deemed to admit the validity of any award made against the original opposite party or the person served with a notice under Clause (a) and to admit his own liability to indemnify the party against whom such award is made for any compensation recovered from him:

Provided that, if any person so served appears subsequently and satisfied the Competent Authority that he was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing, the Competent Authority shall, after giving notice to all parties on the record, hear such person, and may set aside or vary any award made against such person under this rule upon such terms as may be just.

(e) In any proceeding in which a notice has been served on any person under Clause (a) or Clause (c) the Competent Authority shall, if he awards compensation, record in his judgment a finding in respect of each of such persons, whether he is or is not liable to indemnify any of the opposite parties, and shall specify the party, if any whom he is liable to indemnify.

(25) (a) Where two or more cases pending before a Competent Authority arise out of the same accident, and any issue involved is common to two or more such cases, such cases may, so far as the evidence bearing on such issue is concerned, be heard simultaneously.

(b) Where action is taken under Clause (a) the evidence bearing on the common issue or issues shall be recorded on the record of one case, and the Competent Authority shall certify under his hand on the record on any such other case, the extent to which the evidence so recorded applied to such other case, and the fact that the parties to such other case had the opportunity of being present, and if they were present, of cross-examining the witnesses.

(26) Save as otherwise expressly provided in the Code or these Rules the following provision of the First Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, namely, those contained in Order V, rules 9 to 13 and 15 to 30; Order IX; Order XIII rules 3 to 10; Order XVI rules 2 to 21; Order XVII; and Order XXIII rules 1 and 2; shall apply to proceedings before Competent Authority, in so far as they may be applicable thereto:

Provided that—

(a) For the purpose of facilitating the application of the said provisions, the Competent Authority may construe them with such alterations not affecting the substance as may be necessary or propose to adapt them to the matter before him;

(b) The Competent Authority may for sufficient reasons, proceed otherwise than in accordance with the said provisions if he is satisfied that the interests of the parties will not thereby be prejudiced.

(27) Any form other than a receipt for compensation, which is by these rules required to be signed by a Commissioner (Labour and Employment) may be signed under his direction and on his behalf by any officer subordinate to him appointed by him in writing for this purpose.

(28) The provisions of this Part shall, as far as may be, apply in the case of any proceedings relating to the apportionment of compensation among the dependants of a deceased workman.

(29) (a) The competent authority shall dispose the application within six months from the date of receiving the application .

(b) Any party to the dispute who desires to get certified copies of decision, decree or other document, may get the same on payment of cost at the following rate, namely:—

(i) the cost for a copy of any document or record or statement or order or decree shall be rupees hundred per copy.

(ii) the cost of service or summons or notices or expenses of witnesses or the cost payable in respect of any of the matter not referred above shall be such amount as may be ordered in each case by the competent authority.

(c) The competent authority may, whenever it finds either on application of applicant or otherwise that the applicant is unable to pay the costs, it may exempt the applicant from the payment of cost.

(d) Any person who is not a party to dispute, may get the certified copy of decision, decree or other document except the confidential document, on payment of fee as specified above.

(30) (a) Upon receiving the application under Section 93, the competent authority may examine the applicant on oath or may send the application to any officer authorised by notification in this behalf and direct such officer to examine the applicant and his witness and forward the record thereof to the competent authority.

(b) The substance of any examination made under Clause (a) shall be recorded in the manner provided for the recording of evidence in Section 97.

31.(a) The cess levied under sub-section (1) of Section 100 shall be paid by an employer in advance, on the basis of his self-assessment duly certified by charged engineer at the time of approval or before the commencement of work.

(b) Every employer, within a period of sixty days of commencement of his work or payment of cess, as the case may be, furnish to the assessing officer information in Form-XXXV.

(c) Any change or modification in the information furnished under Clause (b) shall be communicated to the assessing officer in Form-XXXV, incorporating details of such modification immediately not later than thirty days from the date of affecting the modification or change.

(d) For the purpose of self-assessment of cost of construction, the employer shall calculate the cost of construction work on the uniform rate or rates of construction as specified by Public Works Department (PWD) or the Central Public Works Department (CPWD) or any other schedule of rates applicable to such building or construction work or rates as per return or document submitted to the Real Estate Regulatory Authority for a building work (where Real Estate Regulatory Authority is applicable), applicable for that particular year in which commencement of building or other work took place in Form-XXXVI.

(e) where the duration of the project or construction work exceeds one year, cess shall be paid within thirty days of completion of one year from the date of commencement of work and every year thereafter at the notified rates on the cost of construction incurred during the relevant period.

(f) where the levy of cess pertains to building and other construction work of a Government or of a Public sector undertaking, such Government or the Public Sector Undertaking shall deduct or cause to be deducted the cess payable at the notified rate from the bill paid for such works.

(g) where the approval of the construction work by a local authority is required, every application for such approval shall be accompanied by a cross demand draft in favour of the Board and payable at the station at which the Board is located for an amount of cess payable at the notified rate on the estimated cost of construction:

Provided that if the duration of the project is likely to exceed one year, the demand draft may be for the amount of cess payable on cost of construction estimated to be incurred during one year from the date of commencement and further payment of cess due shall be made as per the provisions of Clause (e).

(h) An employer may pay in advance an amount of cess calculated on the basis of the estimated cost of construction alongwith the notice of the commencement of the work by a crossed demand draft in favour of the Board and payable at the station at which the Board is located.

(i) In case, there is any stoppage or reduction of building or other construction work, employer shall furnish the information in Form-XXXVII, to the assessing officer within sixty days of such stoppage or reduction of building or other construction work.

(j) Every employer on completion of building or other construction work, shall be required to submit a return in Form-XXXVIII, to the assessing officer within sixty days of each of his completed work.

(k) Advance cess paid under the afore running provision shall be adjusted in the final assessment order made by assessing officer.

(l) The proceeds of the cess collected under Clause (e), shall be transferred by such Central or State Government office, public sector undertaking, local authority or such other authority notified by the State Government, or assessing officer, as the case may be, in the bank account of the Goa Building Workers' Welfare Board, electronically through online payment system.

(m) The amount so collected shall be transferred to such Board's fund within thirty days of its collection through online payment system.

(n) The Goa Building Workers' Welfare Board shall periodically reconcile the amount of cess collected, with the concerned authorities of the State Government or Central Government or Public Sector Undertaking of the State Government or the Central Government or any such other authority as specified by the appropriate Government.

(o) The Goa Building Workers' Welfare Board shall submit half-yearly report, to the State Government with a copy to the Central Government, on the amount of cess collected, cumulative and during the period, expenditure incurred during the period, number of live building or other construction workers, for such period and with such details, as specified by the Central Government.

(p) The assessing officer, on receipt of information of return and cess paid from an employer in Form-XXXVIII, may make a scrutiny of such information furnished and, if he is satisfied about the correctness of the particulars so furnished, he shall make an order of assessment within a period not exceeding one hundred and eighty days from the date of receipt of such information, indicating the amount of cess payable by the employer and endorse a copy thereof to the employer and to the cess-collector and to the Goa Building Workers' Welfare Board and despatch such order within five days of the date on which such order is made:

Provided that such scrutiny shall be done by the assessing officer only where the amount of cess based on self-assessment exceeds rupees ten lakh:

Provided further that if the assessing officer fails to make the order of assessment within a period of one hundred and eighty days, the self-assessment shall be deemed to be final.

(q) The order shall, inter-alia, specify the amount of cess due, cess already paid by the employer or deducted at source and the balance amount payable and the date, consistent with the provision of Clause (2), by which the cess shall be paid to the cess collector.

(r) If on the scrutiny of information furnished by the employer in Form-XXXVIII, the Assessing Officer is of the opinion that employer has under-calculated or miscalculated the cost of construction or has calculated less amount of cess payable, he shall issue notice to the employer for assessment of the cess.

(s) On receipt of such notice the employer shall furnish to the Assessing Officer a reply together with copies of documentary or other evidences in support of his claim, within thirty days of the receipt of the notice:

Provided that the Assessing Officer may, in the course of assessment afford an opportunity to the assessee to be heard in person, if he so requests to substantiate his claim.

(t) If the employer fails to furnish the reply within the stipulated period specified under Clause (s) or where any employer fails to furnish information in Form-XXXVIII, the Assessing Officer shall proceed to make the assessment on the basis of the available records and other information incidental thereto.

(u) The assessing officer may, at any time while the work is in progress or in the process of assessment of cost of construction authorise such officer to make such enquiry at the work site or from documentary evidence or in any other manner as he may think fit for the purpose of estimating the cost of construction as accurately as possible.

(v) Where the employer has deposited the cess in advance and the employer decides to withdraw from or foreclose the works or modifies the plan of construction thereby reducing the cost of construction undertaken or has been forced by other circumstances to call off the completion of the work undertaken, he may seek refund of the excess amount of advance cess paid by submitting information in Form-XXXVII to the Assessing Officer giving details of such reduction or stoppage of work.

(w) The Assessing Officer, on receipt of information in Form-XXXVII from an employer shall make a scrutiny of such information furnished and, if he is satisfied about the correctness of the particulars so furnished, he shall make an order of assessment within a period not exceeding thirty days of receipt of such information.

(x) Following the assessment order made on receipt of Form-XXXVII as per Clause (w), the assessing officer shall, wherever necessary, endorse a copy of the such assessment to the Goa Building Workers' Welfare Board, cess collector and to such other persons as he thinks appropriate, for making the refund of excess cess as ordered in the assessment made under Clause (w).

(y) The Goa Building Workers' Welfare Board shall, within thirty days of receipt of the endorsement from the assessing officer under Clause (x), refund the amount specified in the order to the employer through electronic payment system in the bank account as per details furnished by the employer for that purpose.

(z) Where the appellate authority has modified the order of assessment reducing the amount of cess, refund shall be made within such time as may be specified in that order or in the manner and time as specified under Clause (x).

(32) (a) Date of payment of cess shall be the date on which the amount is deposited with the cess collector or the date on which the amount has been deposited with the local authority, as the case may be.

(b) If any employer fails to pay any amount of cess payable under section 100, within such time as may be specified in the assessment order, such employer shall be liable to pay interest on the amount of cess, to be paid, at the rate of one per cent. for every month or part of a month comprised in the period from the date on which such payment was due till such amount is actually paid.

33. (a) An assessing officer, if it appears to him that an employer has not paid the cess within the date as specified in the assessment order or has paid less cess, including the cess deducted at source or paid in advance, shall issue a notice to such employer that it shall be deemed to be in arrears and such assessing officer may, after such inquiry as it deems fit, impose on such employer, a penalty not exceeding such amount of cess:

Provided that before imposing any such penalty, such employer shall be given a reasonable opportunity of being heard and if after such hearing the assessing officer is satisfied that the default was for any good and sufficient reason, no penalty shall be imposed on such employer.

(b) If any penalty is imposed on the employer or the notice for imposing the penalty is withdrawn, the assessing officer will pass a speaking order in this regard stating the reasons thereof. A copy of such order shall be endorsed to the employer, cess-collector and to the Secretary, Building Workers' Welfare Board.

34. (a) An appeal under Section 105, inter alia, shall be accompanied with—

(a) the order appealed against;

(b) a certificate from the cess collector to the effect that the amount of cess or penalty or both, as the case may be, relating to such appeal has been deposited;

(c) a non-refundable fee equivalent to one-half per cent., but not exceeding rupees twenty five thousand of the amount in dispute or penalty or both, as the case may be, under such appeal;

(d) a statement of points in dispute; and

(e) documentary evidence relied upon.

(b) On receipt of the appeal, the appellate authority may, call details from the assessing officer or his statement on the basis of his assessment order appealed against, as such appellate authority may consider necessary for the disposal of such appeal.

(c) The appellate authority shall give the appellant an opportunity of being heard in the matter and dispose of the appeal as expeditiously as possible but not exceeding sixty days from the date of receipt of such appeal.

(d) On being satisfied on the quantum of cess, the appellate authority shall confirm the order of the assessing officer or if in his opinion the assessment was wrong; or on the higher side shall modify the order of assessment or if in his opinion the assessment is on the lower side or if the basis of assessment is wrong, it shall remand back the assessment order to the assessing officer along with his observations to rectify the wrong.

(e) An order remanded back shall be disposed of by the assessing officer within thirty days in view of the observation made by the Appellate Authority:

Provided that, if the amount of cess is proposed to be enhanced the assessee shall be given an opportunity of being heard.

(f) If the appellate authority is of the opinion that the quantum of penalty imposed is on the higher side or not correctly made it shall suitably modify or set aside the order of the assessing officer, as he deems appropriate.

(g) The appeal under this rule shall be disposed of by making a speaking order and a copy of such order shall be sent to each of the appellant, the assessing officer and to the Secretary, Goa Building Workers' Welfare Board within five days of the date on which such order is made.

An order in appeal, reducing the amount of cess, shall also ask the Secretary, Goa Building Workers' Welfare Board to refund the excess cess stating clearly a specified time to the appellant.

An order in appeal enhancing or reducing the amount of cess or penalty or both, as the case may be, shall also specify the date by which the amount of cess or penalty or both shall be paid or refunded.

No appeal shall lie against the order of the appellate authority under this rule.

87. Registration of building worker.— (1) Every employer or the contractor shall be responsible to register such building workers eligible under this rule who are on their muster roll on the portal of the State Government or the State Goa Building Workers' Welfare Board or the designated Portal or in any other mode and such registration shall be seeded with Aadhaar and the Universal Account Number or any other such unique number generated through the designated Portal of the State Government.

Provided that every such building worker has completed eighteen years of age and is less than sixty years of age and has been engaged in building or other construction work for not less than ninety days in the preceding twelve months.

(2) Every registered building worker shall be issued a identity card bearing his photograph and other details as may be specified by the State Government or the Board referred to in sub-rule (1) which shall be downloadable from the portal of the State Government or such Board.

(3) Every building worker registered with the Goa Building Workers' Welfare Board, shall be entitled to receive the benefits provided by the Board from its fund during the validity period of such registration.

(4) The delivery of welfare schemes for the building workers may be done electronically using the registration number of the building worker and any cash assistance shall be given through direct benefit transfer only.

88. Recovery of due.— (1) For the purpose of recovery of sums due on account of unpaid cess, interest or overdue payment or, penalty under these rules, the assessing officer shall prepare a certificate signed by him, specifying the amount due and send it to the recovery officer of the district concerned who shall proceed to recover from the said employer the amount specified there under as if it were an arrears of land revenue or under any other such law prevailing for such purpose.

(2) An assessing officer, for the purposes of Section 103, may—

(a) enter any establishment where building or other construction work is going on only with the prior approval of the Secretary, Goa Building Workers' Welfare Board;

(b) make an inventory of materials, machinery or other articles lying at the workplace;

(c) enquire about the number of workers engaged in various activities;

(d) require the production of any concerned register or any other documents relevant to the assessment of cost of construction or number of workers employed;

(e) seize or take copies of any such records;

(f) make general assessment of the stage of the construction work having been completed;

(g) measurement, notes or photographs; and

(h) exercise such other powers considered absolutely necessary for reasonable assessment of cost of construction.

(3) The assessing officer or any Inspector-cum-Facilitator under the Code, having come to know of violation of an obligation to furnish return, furnishing of false information, intentionally or wilfully evading or attempting to evade the payment of cess may make a complaint with evidences pertaining to such complaint to the State Government with a copy to the Goa Building Workers' Welfare Board in writing.

89. Fees for appeal.—An appeal preferred under sub-section (1) of Section 105 shall be accompanied by non-refundable fee equivalent to half percent, but not exceeding rupees twenty five thousand, of the amount in dispute or penalty or both, as the case may be, under such appeal.

90. Conditions and manner of writing off irrecoverable dues.— Where the Goa Unorganized Workers Social Security Board or the Goa Building and other Construction Workers Welfare Board is of the opinion that the amount of contribution, cess, interest and damages due to the Board has become irrecoverable, the Board or any other officer authorised by it in this behalf, may sanction the writing off of the said amount, subject to the following conditions, namely:—

(1) if the establishment has been closed for more than five years and the whereabouts of the employer cannot be ascertained, despite all possible efforts; or

(2) decree obtained by the Board could not be executed successfully for want of sufficient assets of the defaulting employer; or

(3) claim for contribution is not fully complied with by—

- (a) the Official Liquidator in the event of factories or establishments having gone into liquidation; or
(b) in the event of factories or establishment being Nationalised or taken over by the Government.

CHAPTER VII

Maintainance of Records, Registers, Returns, etc.

91. Maintenance of records, registers, returns, etc.— (1) The employer of every establishment in which women are employed shall prepare and maintain a register of women employees in Form XXXIX electronically or in hard copy and shall enter therein particulars of all women workers in the establishment and the same shall always be available for inspection by the authority notified or by the Inspector-cum-Facilitator.

(2) The employer may enter in the register of women employees such other particulars as may be required for any other purpose of the Code.

(3) The records shall be preserved for a period of three years from the date of their preparation.

(4) The employer of every establishment in which employees are employed, shall prepare and maintain record and registers as per the record and registers to be maintained under the Code on Wages, 2019 (Central Act 29 of 2019) and the rules framed there-under.

(5) The employer to which the provisions of the Code applies, on or before the 1st day of February in each year, upload a unified annual return in Form-XXXX hereto online on the web portal of the Labour Department of the Government of Goa, giving information as to the particulars specified, in respect of the preceding year:

Provided that during inspection, the Inspector-cum-Facilitator may require the production of records, register and other documents maintained in electronic form or otherwise.

Explanation.— (a) For the purposes of this sub-rule, the expression “electronic form” shall have the same meaning as assigned to it in Clause (r) of Section 2 of the Information Technology Act, 2000 (Central Act 21 of 2000).

(6) If the employer to which the Code applies, sells, abandons or discontinues the working of the establishment, he shall, within one month of the date of such sale or abandonment or four months of the date of such discontinuance, as the case may be, upload online, on the web portal of the Labour Department of the Government of Goa, a further unified return in Form-XXXX hereto in respect of the period between the end of the preceding year and the date of the sale, abandonment or discontinuance.

92. Holding property, etc., by Social Security Organisation in accordance with Section 120.— The conditions to acquire, hold, sell or otherwise transfer any movable or immovable property under sub-section (1), conditions to re-invest or realize investments under sub-section (2), term to raise loans and take measures for discharging such loans under sub-section (3) and terms to constitute for the benefit of officers and staff or any class of them, provident or other benefit funds under sub-section (4) of Section 120 of the Code on Social Security shall be as decided by the Board by a resolution approved by not less than 2/3rd majority:

Provided that all moneys held and belonging to the fund may be invested in Nationalized Banks or Scheduled Banks or in the securities as notified by the Government of Goa.

CHAPTER VIII

Employment Exchange

93. Manner and form of reporting vacancies and form of filing the return by the employer, to the concerned career centre.— (1) The employer in every establishment in public sector in the State of Goa shall, before filling up any vacancy in any employment in that establishment, report that vacancy or cause to be reported, to such Career Centre as may be specified in the notification by the Appropriate Government.

(2) The employer in every establishment in private sector or every establishment pertaining to any class or category of establishments in private sector shall, before filling up any vacancy in any employment in that establishment, report that vacancy or cause to be reported, to such Career Centre (Regional) from such date as may be specified in the notification by the Government.

(c) The Government shall provide for mechanism (including digital) for receipt of vacancies reported by the employers. Career Centre to which the vacancies are reported, would provide a unique vacancy reporting number for the vacancy reported and convey it to the employer in writing, through email or digitally or through any other such media immediately but in any case not later than three working days from the date of receipt of reporting of vacancies.

Explanation.— (1) Establishment in “public sector” means an establishment owned, controlled or managed by—

(i) the Government or a Department of the Government;

(ii) a Government company as defined in Clause (45) of Section 2 of the Companies Act, 2013 (No. 18 of 2013);

(iii) a corporation (including a co-operative society) or an autonomous organization or an authority or a body established by or under a Central or State Act, which is owned, controlled or managed by the Government; and a local authority.

(2) “Establishment in private sector” means an establishment which is not an establishment in public sector and with ordinarily 20 or more employees or such number of employees as may be notified by the Central Government.

(4) Appropriate Government would be Central Government for Career Centre (Central) and Government of Goa for Career Centre (Regional).

(5) The vacancies shall be reported in writing or through valid official email or digitally to the Career Centre specified by the Government.

(6) The vacancies shall be reported in Form-XXXXI hereto furnishing as many details as practicable, separately in respect of each type of vacancy.

(7) Any change in the particulars already furnished to the Career Centre shall be reported in writing or through official email or digitally, as the case may be, to the specified Career Centre.

(8) (a) Vacancies, required to be reported to the Career Centre (Regional), shall be reported at least fifteen days before the last date of receipt of the applications of the prospective candidates for purpose of appointment or taking interview or test against the vacancies reported.

(b) Vacancies required to be reported to the Career Centre (Central) shall be reported at least forty days before the last date of receipt of the applications of the prospective candidates for purpose of appointment or taking interview or test against the vacancies reported.

(c) The employer shall furnish the information relating to the result of selection to the concerned career centre against the vacancies reported within thirty days from the date of selection.

(9) (a) After commencement of this Code the employers in every establishment in the public sector shall maintain records manually or electronically or digitally about,—

(i) Total number of employees (regular, contractual or fixed term employment) on 31st March of every year;

(ii) Persons recruited during the year ending on 31st March;

(iii) Persons recruited from the sponsored list by career centre during the year ending 31st March;

(iv) Occupational details of its employees on 31st March of every year;

(v) Vacancies for which suitable candidates were not available during the year ending on 31st March;
and

(vi) Approximate number of vacancies likely to occur during the next financial year.

(b) The Government may, by notification, require that from such date as may be specified in the notification, the employer in every establishment in private sector or every establishment pertaining to any class or category of establishment in private sector shall maintain records manually or electronically or digitally about:—

(i) Total number of employees (regular, contractual or fixed term employment) on 31st March of every year;

(ii) Persons recruited during the year ending on 31st March;

(iii) Persons recruited from the sponsored list by carrier centre during the year ending 31st March;

(iv) Occupational details of its employees on 31st March of every year;

(v) Vacancies for which suitable candidates were not available during the year ending on 31st March;
and

(vi) Approximate number of vacancies likely to occur during the next financial year.

(10) An employer shall furnish to the concerned Career Centre (Regional) yearly return in Form-XXXXII manually or electronically or digitally, as the case may be, within thirty days of the due date, namely, 31st March of the year.

(11) Declaration of Executive Officer: (a) The Director of Employment or officer of his equivalent or above rank, controlling the work of Career Centres (Regional) of State, will declare in writing an officer looking after the work of Career Centres (Regional) as “Executive Officer” for each district for the purpose of enforcement/implementation of Chapter XIII (Employment Information and Monitoring) of the Code. He shall be the officer who shall perform duties referred to in Section 139 of the Code, or authorize any person in writing to perform those duties.

(8) Levy of penalty under Chapter XIII of the Code: The Director of Employment or an officer of equivalent or above rank, controlling the work of Career Centres of State shall be the competent authority to levy of penalty for an offence under the Code as mentioned in Section 133 for compounding of an offence shall be in Form-XXXXII.

CHAPTER X

Offences and Penalties

94. Form and manner of application for compounding of an offence.— (1) The officer authorized by the Government by notification for the purposes of compounding of offence under sub-section (1) of Section 138 shall issue electronically or otherwise by Registered Post a notice in Form-XXXXIII for the offences which are compoundable under Section 138.

(2) The person who receives notice under sub-rule (1) may apply in Part III of Form-XXXXIII to the officer electronically or otherwise and deposit the entire compounding amount by electronic transfer or otherwise, within fifteen days of the receipt of the notice.

(3) The Compounding Officer shall issue a composition certificate in Part IV of Form-XXXXIII within ten days of receipt of the composition amount, to such person from whom such amount has been received in satisfaction of the notice.

(4) If a person fails to deposit the composition amount within the time, the prosecution shall be instituted before the competent court for the offence in respect of which the compounding notice was issued, against such person.

(5) The court may compound any compoundable offence at any time after filing of a complaint under Section 138 of the Code.

CHAPTER VII

Miscellaneous

95. Social Security Fund.— (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (5) of Section 141 of the code, the other sources of the Social Security Fund for the welfare of the Un-organised Workers may include,—

- (a) Any grants from the Central or State Government, as the case may be;
- (b) Any contribution from the Un-organised Workers towards Registration or Membership; and
- (c) Any donations from Private Organizations or Bodies.
- (d) any other source as may be decided by the Board and as notified by the State Government.

(2) The funds of the Board shall be expended for implementing the various schemes of the Un-organized Workers and such other salaries, allowances and administrative expenses as determined by the Board.

96. Time within which the Central Board or the Corporation, as the case may be, shall forward its view to the appropriate Government.—The Central Board or the Corporation, as the case may be, shall forward its views on the application seeking exemption under Section 143 of the Code to the Government of Goa within six months of receipt of proposal for exemption. If Central Board or the Corporation, as the case may be, is unable to provide its views within the said period, the Government of Goa may extend the time limit or take action on the application of exemption, as it may deem fit.

97. Conditions for which the exempted establishment or the class of establishments or an employee or class of employees, as the case may be, shall comply with after such exemption.— (1) The establishment to which exemption has been granted from the provision of chapter IV of the Code,—

(a) shall maintain such records regarding the exempted employees and submit such returns and other information to the Corporation and the State Government as may be specified in the Regulation; and

(b) in case of change in legal status of an establishment which has been granted exemption under Section 143 of the Code, due to merger, demerger, acquisition, sale, amalgamation, formation into a subsidiary, whether wholly owned or not, etc, the exemption shall be deemed to be cancelled and the establishment shall be required to apply afresh for exemption to the State Government of Goa.

(2) For the purposes of Chapter III, the establishment and/or employer, after the grant of exemption, shall comply with all such terms and conditions as may be specified in the Provident Fund Scheme or the Pension Scheme or the Insurance Scheme, as the case may be, framed under Section 15 of the Code.

98. Conditions for management of the trust.— (1) A Board of Trustees shall be established for the management of the Provident Fund or the Pension Fund according to such directions as may be given by the Central Government or the Central Provident Fund Commissioner, as the case may be, from time to time.

99. Repeal and saving.— The Goa, Daman and Diu Payment of Gratuity Rules, 1973; Goa, Daman and Diu Employees' State Insurance Court Rules, 1976; The Goa Daman and Diu Maternity Benefit Rules, 1967 and Goa, Daman and Diu Workmen's Compensation Rules, 1965, stands hereby repealed.

By order and in the name of the Governor.

Manesh Hari Kedar, Under Secretary, Labour.

[se rule 76(5)]

(Abstract for the Maternity Benefit, and the rules made under the Code on Social Security, 2020).

1. No employer shall knowingly employ a woman during the six weeks immediately following the day of her delivery/miscarriage/Medical termination of pregnancy and no woman shall work in any establishment during the said period.

2. No pregnant woman shall, on a request being made by her in this behalf, be required by her employer to do during the period of one month immediately preceding the period of six weeks before the date of her expected delivery and also for any period during this period of six weeks for which she does not avail of leave of absence, any work which is of an arduous nature or which involves long hours of standing, or which in way is likely to interfere with her pregnancy or the normal development of the foetus, or is likely to cause her miscarriage or otherwise to adversely affect her health.

3. (a) Subject to the provisions of the Code, every woman who has actually worked in an establishment of the employer from whom she claims maternity benefit for a period of not less than eighty days, including the days during which she was laid off, shall be entitled to, and her employer shall be liable for, the payment of maternity benefit at the rate of her average daily wages, or the minimum rate of wage fixed or revised under the Code on Wages, 2019 (29 of 2019) or two hundred rupees a day, whichever is higher, for the period of her actual absence not exceeding six weeks immediately preceding the day of delivery and the remaining period immediately following that day:

Provided that where a woman dies during the period for which maternity benefit is payable, to her, the benefit shall be payable only for the days up to and including the day of her death. However, where the woman having been delivered of a child, dies during her delivery or during the remaining period of maternity benefit leaving behind in either case the child, the employer shall be liable for the payment of maternity benefit for the entire period of maternity benefit following the day of her delivery but if the child also dies during the said period, then, for the days up to and including the day of the death of the child.

(b) The amount of maternity benefit for the period preceding the date of her expected delivery shall be paid in advance by the employer to the woman on production of a certificate in Form X stating that she is pregnant and is expected to be delivered of a child within six weeks of the date of production of the certificate, and the amount due for the subsequent period shall be paid by the employer to the woman within forty-eight hours of production of the certificate in Form X stating that she has been delivered of a child or production of a certified extract from a Birth Register maintained under the provisions of any law for the time being in force.

4. (a) Any woman employed in an establishment and entitled to maternity benefit under the provisions of the Code may give notice in writing in Form-XI to her employer, stating that her maternity benefit and any other amount to which she may be entitled under the Code may be paid to her or to such person as she may nominate in the notice and that she will not work in any establishment during the period for which she receives maternity benefit.

(b) In the case of a woman who is pregnant, such notice shall state the date from which she will be absent from work, not being a date earlier than six weeks from the date of her expected delivery.

(c) Any woman who has not given the notice when she was pregnant may give such notice as soon as possible after the delivery.

(d) On receipt of the notice, the employer shall permit such woman to absent herself from establishment until the expiry of the remaining period of maternity benefit after the day of her delivery.

5. (a) Every woman entitled to maternity benefit under the Code shall also be entitled to receive from her employer a medical bonus of rupees three thousand and five hundred, if no pre-natal, confinement and post-natal care is provided for by the employer free of charge. The medical bonus shall be paid along with the second installment of the maternity benefit.

(b) In case of miscarriage/medical termination of pregnancy, a woman shall, on production of a certificate in Form-X be entitled to leave with wages at the rate of maternity benefit, for a period of six weeks immediately following the day of her miscarriage. The wages shall be paid within 48 hours of production of the certificate in Form-X.

(c) A woman suffering from illness arising out of pregnancy, delivery, premature birth of child or miscarriage/ medical termination of pregnancy or tubectomy operation shall, on production of a certificate in Form-X, be entitled, in addition to the period of absence allowed to her on account of maternity or miscarriage/ medical termination of pregnancy or tubectomy operation, as the case may be, to leave with wages at the rate of maternity benefit for a maximum period of one month. The wages for the leave period shall be paid within 48 hours of the expiry of that period.

6. Every woman delivered of a child who returns to duty after such delivery shall, in addition to the interval for rest allowed to her, be allowed in the course of her daily work two breaks of 15 minutes' duration for nursing the child until the child attains the age of fifteen months. An extra sufficient period, depending upon the distance to be covered, shall be allowed for the purpose of the journey to and from the creche or the place where the children are left by women while on duty, provided that such extra period shall be upto 15 minutes.

7. (1) When a woman absents herself from work in accordance with the provisions of the Code, it shall be unlawful for her employer to discharge or dismiss her during or on account of such absence or to give notice of discharge or dismissal on such a day that the notice will expire during such absence, or to vary to her disadvantage any of the conditions of her service.

(2) (a) The discharge or dismissal of a woman at any time during her pregnancy, if the woman but for which discharge or dismissal would have been entitled to maternity benefit or medical bonus shall not have the effect of depriving her of the maternity benefit or medical bonus:

Provided that where the dismissal is for one or more of the following acts, the employer may, by order in writing communicate to the woman, deprive her of the maternity benefit or medical bonus or both-

- (i) wilful destruction of employer's goods or property;
- (ii) assaulting any superior or co-employee at the place of work;
- (iii) criminal offence involving moral turpitude resulting in conviction in a Court of law;
- (iv) theft, fraud, or dishonesty in connection with the employer's business or property;
- and
- (v) wilful non-observance of safety measures or rules on the subject or wilful interference with safety devices or with fire-fighting equipment.

(b) Any woman deprived of maternity benefit or medical bonus or both, may within sixty days from the date on which the order of such deprivation is communicated to her, appeal in Form-XII to the Competent Authority and his decision on such appeal whether the woman should or should not be deprived of maternity benefit or medical bonus or both, shall be final.

8. If a woman works in any establishment after she has been permitted by her employer to absent herself under the provisions of the Code, she shall forfeit her claim to the maternity benefit for such period.

9. (1) Any woman claiming the maternity benefit or any other amount to which she is entitled under the Code and any person claiming that payment due has been improperly withheld may make complaint to the Inspector-cum-Facilitators in writing in Form-XIII-A.

(2) The Inspector-cum-Facilitators may, on his own motion or on receipt of a complaint in Form-XIII-A, make an inquiry or cause an enquiry to be made and if satisfied that payment has been wrongfully withheld, may direct the payment to be made in accordance with his orders.

(3) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Inspector-cum-Facilitator may, within, thirty days from the date on which such decision is communicated to such person, appeal in FormXIII-B to the Authority prescribed by the appropriate Government.

(4) The decision of Authority where an appeal has been preferred to him or of the Inspector-cum-Facilitator where no such appeal has been preferred, shall be final.

10. (a) The employer shall supply to every woman employed by him at her request free of cost copies of Forms X, XI, XII, XIII-A and XIII-B.

(b) The failure to submit a notice, appeal or complaint in the prescribed form shall not affect the right of a woman entitled to receive maternity benefit or any other amount due under the Code. Where a notice, appeal or complaint has been received in a form other than the prescribed form, the authority concerned shall within fifteen days of the receipt of such notice, appeal or complaint, require the woman to submit the notice, appeal or complaint, as the case may be in the prescribed form.

11. (a) (1) The employer of the establishment in which women are employed shall prepare and maintain a register of women employees in Form-XXII and shall enter therein particulars of all women employees in the establishment.

(2) All entries in the register of women employees shall be made in ink and maintained up-to-date and it shall always be available for inspection by the Inspector-cum-Facilitator during working hours.

(b) The employer to which the Code applies, on or before the 1st day of February in each year, upload a unified annual return in Form-XXIII online on the web portal of the Central Government in the Ministry of Labour and Employment, giving information as to the particulars specified, in respect of the preceding year:
